Thomas Fresh Inc. Arranges Truck Load Donation to Christmas Food Hampers

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Monday, December 19, 2016

www.salvationarmy.ca/prairie

Saskatoon – On Tuesday, December 20, 2016, at 8:30 am, Robb McGill from Thomas Fresh Inc., and Roger Fehr from RDF Trucking will deliver a truck load of produce to Confederation Mall for donation to The Salvation Army.

As The Salvation Army in Saskatoon arranges to distribute 1300 Christmas Food Hampers, these local companies have chosen to arrange for the donation and delivery of a load of produce to ensure there will be Christmas meals on every table this holiday season. For a third year, representatives from Thomas Fresh Inc. have worked tirelessly to arrange for the donation of 1300 of each produce items including carrots, potatoes, onions, apples, and cabbages and approximately 650 yams and rutabagas. RDF Trucking is donating their service to deliver this produce which totals approximately 23 pallets.

“We feed people for a living, so what better way to give back to the community than to make sure every family has the opportunity to sit down together and enjoy a nice holiday meal this season. We are very proud of our partnership with The Salvation Army, as well as many school programs throughout western Canada, ensuring that everyone is given access to the Christmas meal they deserve but, also educating the public about the importance of fruits and vegetables in a healthy lifestyle.” – Robb McGill, Thomas Fresh Inc.

LOCATION: Confederation Mall – Front Entrance (Canadian Tire Side of mall)

DATE: Tuesday, December 20, 2016
